

"Just wanted you to know that our Information Radio Station has played an important role in publicizing the free County-sponsored walk-in H1N1 clinics. The announcements ran prior to and during the clinics and was instrumental in getting a good turnout despite less-than-perfect winter weather in our town."

Rich Phoenix, RMC
Borough of North Plainfield, New Jersey

Photo above courtesy of Somerset County, NJ. "North Plainfield Borough appreciates its warm relationship with Somerset County Health Officer John Horensky, the Borough's Coordinator of Emergency Management Brian Martin as well as local and county employees and volunteers that made our free H1N1 clinics so successful."